UNCLE SAM is after those Postmasters who increase their salaries by selling stamps to friends in other cities.

SOMETIMES applicants for position injure their chances by a persistent "hounding" of those who have power to bestow the place.

It's more than an even bet that Millionaire HEARST will not carry Kentucky in the Presidential election, notwithstanding the aid Judge TARVIN is giving him.

THAT was a considerate Judge over in Indiana who adjourned a murder trial and took the entire Jury to a circus. At all events, he had twelve good reasons for going himself.

At Covington the lawyers who made a couple of clients swear that the C. and O. had hurt each of them $2,000 worth, have just accepted $150 and $200 respectively in settlement of the "damages."

WHEN Queen ALEXANDRA heard how the moles were destroying crops in Wales she ordered a moleskin muff. They became the rage, and the moles are nearly exterminated. This pretty story is commended to some popular Maysville lady. Such an act on her part might result in ridding the Northern portion of the Maysville Cemetery of these pests. They are literally "burrowing up the earth" in that locality.

If you favor "putting money in the pockets of the people" instead of piling it up in the Treasury, it may be stated that one in sixteen of the inhabitants of the United States has a direct interest in the pension disbursements. This is a reversal of Mr. BRYAN'S 16 to 1.

OUR Democratic friends who expect to attend the National Convention at St. Louis had best provide a good wad of "long green." Hotel rates are now from $10 to $12 a day per; and it is said that Mr. HEARST, candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination, has contracted for 92 rooms at the Jefferson during the period of the Convention at a flat rate of $15 per day per room, and has also secured several floors of the big Planters Hotel and similar accommodations at the Southern. From these figures it is evident that St. Louis never again expects to have a World's Fair and a Democratic Convention in full bloom at the same time.

It has not been so very many years since Maysville people could buy all the oil they wanted at 7 and 8 cents a gallon, but that was before the Trust tightened its grip upon the country.—Evening Bulletin.

And that's just a fact! And then, before that, it hadn't been so many years since Maysville people could buy all the oil they wanted at from 40 to 50 cents a gallon.

And then, before Havemeyer's Democratic Sugar Octopus got its tentacles into the molasses barrel, Maysville people could buy all the granulated sugar they wanted at from 12 to 18 cents a pound, while they are obliged now to pay from 5 to 6 cents a pound for it.

And then, before the Typefounders got into the Trust band-wagon, printers never got beyond 10% discount on cash purchases of type, while soon after they got 45% and are now getting 15% and 2% for thirty-day bills.

Dadgast these dadgasted Trusts anyway; one never knows how badly they will do a fellow up.

DUSTED HIS BREECHES

How Mother Walker Impressed Her Carjumping Son and Heir

The railroads as well as the city officials are making every endeavor to break up the dangerous habit small urchins and older boys have of jumping on and off trains—and more especially of boarding the Accommodation and riding to and fro between Market street and the Depot. Saturday C. and O. Detective Bingham captured David Walker, a colored lad of some ten years, while performing this dangerous feat of hopping on and off a train.

He was taken before Police Judge John L. Whitaker, who disposed of the matter in a novel yet eminently satisfactory way to all concerned.

While the Judge was ruminating as to a proper solution of the case, Spence Walker, the boy's uncle, entered the Courtroom and inquired what disposition was to be made of the culprit.

After lecturing the lad in a fatherly way, and admonishing him of the danger attending jumping on either street or railroad cars, and informing him of the law proscribing such offense, he was given the choice of going to Jail or receiving a good lambasting at the hands of his mother.

The boy chose the whipping, and Spence Walker was appointed deputy to take charge of the boy and see that the lash was properly and adequately applied and no faking. Spence was also commanded to report in writing to the Court whether its mandate had been properly carried out. The following is Spence's typewritten report to the Court—

"This is to certify, I, Spence Walker, did witness the whipping of David Walker, given to him by his mother. I do say that it was done in first-class order—switches and straps were in the air. It was done to my satisfaction, and another is promised to him tonight at bedtime. "SPENCE WALKER."

Miss Martha Moore will give a talk to ladies in the Parlors of the New Central tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Dr. McCready delivered his farewell sermon to a large and appreciative congregation, many from other denominations being present.

SURELY WAS A SALE

Central Railway Bridge Sold Saturday at Newport For $534,000

The largest sale ever made by the Master Commissioner in Newport was consummated Saturday when the Central Bridge was disposed of.

In the presence of a big crowd the Commissioner took over half an hour reading the judgment and order of sale, and then called for bids.

The property had been appraised at $800,000, though it cost over $2,000,000.

Only one bid was made, that of George D. Eastis, representing the Cleveland bondholders, who offered $534,000, and he got the elephant.

It is proposed to reorganize the company with a capital of $2,000,000, remodel the structure and endeavor to make it earn a dividend.

A GREAT RECORD

Hard To Duplicate It In Maysville.

Scores of representative citizens of Maysville are testifying on the following subject. Such a record of local indorsement is unequalled in modern times. This public statement made by a citizen is but one of the many that have preceded it and the hundreds that will follow. Read it.

Mrs. W. F. Woodward, residing at West End near Pogue's distillery says:

"Pains in the back and other evidences of a disturbed condition of the kidneys were quickly and thoroughly cured by the use of Dean's Kidney Pills which I got at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. There is no reason why ladies should suffer from backache and kindred troubles when such a reliable and effective preparation can be had."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

The meat received into Smithfield Market every year for the feeding of London exceeds 400,000 tons.

A cremated adult human body leaves a residuum of gray ashes which altogether do not weigh more than about two pounds.

Ethiopia buys about $600,000 of American cotton sheetings and the United States uses more than $800,000 of Ethiopian coffee each year.

Living in a richly furnished house on the West Side, Chicago, a family of beggars has been located after seven years' search by the police.

The London Times, commenting on a correspondent's letter on child emigration to the colonies, says in thirty-four years 45,000 children have been sent to Canada.

It is reported that the tracks of the Siberian Railway, laid on the ice across Lake Balkal, have been taken up on account of the nearness of the spring thaw. During the month of March there were carried over the temporary line 1,693 freight cars, 673 cars of soldiers, 25 cars of officers and 65 engines.

The merchant who wishes to reach people who buy goods, puts his advertisement in a paper that people read; the merchant who throws his money away, gives his advertisement to the fakir who promises to put it on a card and hang it up on a street corner.

Not less than 5,000 people read THE LEDGER 312 days in the year. This makes a total of 1,560,000 readers in a year.
